Rolling V Bus Corp. Expands Recruitment Efforts for 2017

Local business slated for growth in the coming year and seeking new employees

SOUTH FALLSBURG, N.Y. (January 23, 2017) – Rolling V Bus Corporation has recently announced an expansion of their recruitment programs for 2017. The company is eager to entice job seekers with the arrival of the New Year and in preparation for projected corporate growth.

Rolling V has consistently been a leading local business, providing fair pay, holiday pay, benefits and retirement programs for employees. This year, the company announced several expanded initiatives for employees.

“At Rolling V, we understand the burden on today’s families and are committed to taking a proactive approach to assist with various dilemmas as we are able,” said Phil Vallone, president of Rolling V. “Our programs help to not only provide assistance to our employees, but also to ensure that our company has the ability to secure and grow a stable work force within our local community.”

Expanded employee programs include:

- English language training program: A training program offered in conjunction with Sullivan County BOCES to assist people with understanding and communicating in English, with the goal of being employed by Rolling V.

- Entry-level job training: For those retired, looking for supplemental income or just new to the industry, Rolling V's entry-level job training provides new employees with passenger interaction skills, occupational safety training and student management.
- CDL training program: Professional CDL training program assists new employees with obtaining a learner's permit and preparing for the New York State road test, and ultimately acquiring a CDL license.
- Day care offering: In an effort to assist families, Rolling V has a working partnership with Best Friends in Monticello, NY to offer day care services to select, qualified individuals.
- Employee shuttle service: A convenience service offering daily transportation for employees between Liberty, Monticello and South Fallsburg.

Applicants should be aware of the following requirements for applying into Rolling V Bus Aide programs:

- Original birth certificate
- Must be eligible to work in the U.S.
- Two forms of government or state-issued ID

Applicants should be aware of the following requirements for applying into Rolling V Bus Driver programs:
